Re: Emerging Leader Preconference Participation

This June marks the first Americans for the Arts convention preconference dedicated to emerging leaders entitled Cultural Citizens: The Emerging Arts Leadership. It is part of our on-going effort to cultivate the next generation of arts leaders in America. On Thursday, June 5, as part of that meeting, they are holding a facilitated intergenerational dialogue on leadership development in the arts from 3:15-5:00 pm. We would like to invite those of you who will be arriving in Portland for either the USUAF or other meetings that day to participate in this session to share your valuable experience and knowledge with the group.

If you are able to lend your time to this gathering, there will not be any registration fee. Simply let Mara Walker, Americans for the Arts' Vice President of Programs and Services, know that you are going to be there by returning this completed form. We know your time is limited, but believe it is important to create dialogue between those who have been in this industry for some time and those getting started. We hope you will be able to be a part of this significant event.
