JOIN TODAY!

Americans for the Arts is your national arts service organization—serving your needs in the arts field. Of course, you always need to make the most out of every dollar, which is why membership in Americans for the Arts comes at a rate you can afford and with benefits that support your every day work.

WHY JOIN?

Professional membership in Americans for the Arts means access to services, programs, and resources designed especially for you—the arts professional.

Your national arts service organization is dedicated to providing information and assistance you can use to communicate the importance of the arts in your community.

Americans for the Arts offers a variety of membership benefits and services to assist both individuals and organizations. With the Americans for the Arts professional membership program, arts leaders have one place to get all that they need to support their organization and career.

Please visit www.AmericansForTheArts.org/Membership for additional information on all features of professional membership, or contact us by e-mailing membership@artsusa.org or calling 866.471.ARTS.

Please return the attached form to Americans for the Arts, P.O. Box 91261, Washington, DC 20090-1261 or by fax to 202.371.0424.
