FACT:

Great community-based arts events are happening all over our state.

The Arts Are Everywhere!

- From BERLIN, where the Women's Rural Entrepreneurial Network (WREN) just opened an artist work center, go up to the GREAT NORTH WOODS to check out the 15th Annual Lumberjack Festival.
- Head south to LACONIA where the Lakes Region Chamber of Commerce is tweeting about #urbanrenewal now that the Belknap EDC has purchased the Colonial Theatre!

• Did you attend The Thing in Spring this year? Over 100 musicians and artists were featured, attracting over 1,000 visitors to downtown PETERBOROUGH.

• Keep driving west to witness how Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center in HANOVER incorporates art with healing.

• Betcha didn't know that NH's professional orchestra, the NH Symphony based in NASHUA, is led by the world's busiest conductor!

• Visit our state capitol city of CONCORD where the Capitol Center for the Arts works with local and state educators to successfully link their school series to statewide curricula goals.

• If you are in PORTSMOUTH run, don't walk to 3S Art Space a nonprofit organization that "endeavors to ignite and change the way we experience art, music and food."
