

Artist Live/ Work Spaces

1. A Center for the Arts

Fergus Falls, MN

www.fergusarts.org

A Center for the Arts rents out its Fergus Theatre to both for-profit and non-profit groups who wish to hold a performance, film screening, meeting, or other event. The center also has rehearsal spaces and pianos available for rent.

2. Annette Howell Turner Center for the Arts

<http://turnercenter.org/artist-in-residence-program/>

The Annette Howell Turner Center for the Arts offers an artist in residence program to create a public art mural for the city of Valdosta, GA. During their residency, artists also work with the Turner Center to create seminars and workshops.

3. Art Center South Florida

Miami Beach, FL

<http://www.artcentersf.org/>

Art Center/ South Florida offers a studio residency program that houses up to 41 visual artists. Artists gain access to a darkroom, print lab, and common workspace from a 6 month—2 year time frame.

4. Arts Council Lake Erie West

Toledo, OH

http://www.aclew.org/common_space_centers_for_creativity0.aspx

Arts Council Lake Erie West offers live-work spaces for artists, organizations, as well as the general public on a part-time and full-time basis. Full-time studio spaces offer a range of sizes; part-time spaces may be rented for an hour, half-day, or full day.

5. Atlantic Center for the Arts

New Smyrna Beach, FL

<http://www.atlanticcenterforthearts.org/>

The Atlantic Center for the Arts offers a Master Artist-in-Residency program as well as a community Artist-in-Residency Program. Artists in the masters program stay for 3 weeks to study visual arts, architecture, music, literature, choreography, dance, performance, art, or theatre. The community program offers a 4-month residency for local artists interested in creating a community project.

6. Boston Center for the Arts (BCA)

Boston, MA

<http://www.bcaonline.org/>

BCA offers an Artist Residency Program and a Public Art Residency Program. Each artist-in-residence receives a studio and funding support for a 15-week stay; BCA's Public Art Residency asks artists to present a public art project to the community.

7. BRIC

Brooklyn, NY

<http://bricartsmedia.org/>

BRIC's residency programs include a long term residency program as well a short term residency, BRIClab. For the former, BRIC welcomes a dance company every fall for a 5 week performing arts program. The BRIClab residency program spans for 7-10 days, targeted towards both emerging and established local dancers, musicians, actors, and multidisciplinary performers.

8. Cultural Development Corporation

Washington, DC

<http://www.culturaldc.org/artist-services/residency/>

Cultural DC offers three residency programs: office space, flashpoint residency, and source residency. The flashpoint residency is designed for artists, arts organizations, and creative businesspeople; source residency combines a performing arts destination with a creative office space; the office space option makes the program more flexible with both part-time and virtual residency options.

9. Cultural Organization of Lowell

Lowell, MA

<http://cultureiscool.publishpath.com/artist-livework-spaces>

Cultural Organization of Lowell's website outlines three local live-work spaces, including Appleton Mills Live Creatively! Apartments, Ayer Lofts adjacent to Ayer Lofts Art Gallery, and Western Avenue Lofts—right next to Western Avenue Studios.

10. New York Mills Regional Cultural Center

New York Mills, MN

<http://www.kulcher.org/for-artists/arts-retreat-program/>

New York Mills Arts retreat offers a free artist residency program designed to foster all disciplines—performance, written, audio, and visual media alike. One artist per two to six week stay is accepted for access to a one-bedroom house and studio space in the Cultural Center.

11. Paducah Arts Alliance

Paducah, KY

<http://www.paducahartsalliance.com/>

As a result of collaboration between Paducah Arts Alliance and the City of Paducah, the Paducah Artist-in-Residence Program works to create a permanent and progressive artist in residence program. This live-work program provides artists with a community space in which to educated, create, and collaborate, as well as inspiring growth in the local arts community.

12. Rhode Island State Council on the Arts

<http://www.arts.ri.gov/projects/salestax/districts.php>

Pawtucket, RI

Designed to help revitalize the state's cities and towns, the Rhode Island General Assembly divided the state into 9 artists' live/work communities: Providence, Pawtucket, Westerly, Woonsocket, Tiverton, Little Compton, Newport, Warwick, and Warren. They have successfully pulled artists out of NYC and Boston to use those fabulous old mills, now converted to artist live/work.

13. Sierra Arts Foundation

Reno, NV

<http://sierra-arts.org/saf-programs/arts-in-education/>

Sierra Arts Foundation has an artist-in-residency program affiliated with their arts education program. Artists are selected from the Nevada Arts Council Artists in Residencies roster, and are compensated for their time, energy, and commitment to children.

For an additional list of artist in residency programs, see the Arts Council of Hillsborough County's website below. The council provides a list of national and international opportunities.

<http://tampaarts.com/opportunities/residencies/>.