

Loans to Arts Organizations

Question: What are some organizations that provide loans to arts organizations?

While Americans for the Arts does not provide loans to arts organizations, below are some organizations that do. For additional opportunities, check your local community foundations and local arts foundations. We also suggest checking your state and local governments for available loans to arts organizations.

1. Metropolitan Atlanta Arts Fund

<http://www.cfgreateratlanta.org/Grants-Support/Nonprofit-Loan-Fund.aspx>

Now part of The Community Foundation for Greater Atlanta's Nonprofit Loan Fund, the Nonprofit Loan fund helps nonprofit organizations meet short-term funding needs in metropolitan Atlanta's 23-county service area.

2. The Arts Loan Fund

<http://www.artsloanfund.org/>

The Arts Loan Fund (ALF) provides quick-turnaround, low-cost financial assistance to arts organizations. Administered by Northern California Grantmakers, The Arts Loan Fund collaborates with other funders to provide short term loans—a maximum of $50,000.