Each day, 4.8 million Americans go to work in Arts and Culture industries. In fact, according to the US. Bureau of Economic Analysis, the Arts contributed $730 billion to our GDP—which is larger than the Construction, Transportation, and Travel & Tourism industries.