LEADERSHIP THRIVES ON EQUITY.

The Americans for the Arts Diversity in Arts Leadership internship program (DIAL) has impacted nearly 300 students nationally in its 28-year history.

The Diversity in Arts Leadership internship invests in college students from backgrounds underrepresented in the arts field to become future arts leaders. Americans for the Arts matches interns with cultural organizations and mentors for an invigorating summer of professional and personal growth.

Applications for internships and arts organizations for the 2021 summer season can be found here: www.AmericansForTheArts.org/DIAL

The generosity of many partners makes the Diversity in Arts Leadership (DIAL) internship program possible. We extend special thanks to the following donors for their support in 2020:

Con Edison | Kutya Major Foundation | Mertz Gilmore Foundation | Laurie M. Tisch Illumination Fund

“I AM VERY FORTUNATE FOR MY DIAL EXPERIENCE AT AMERICANS FOR THE ARTS. THROUGH DIAL, I CREATED A NETWORK, LEARNED ESSENTIAL ARTS ADMINISTRATION SKILLS, AND GREW INTO MYSELF A BIT MORE. I ALSO CLARIFIED MY CAREER GOALS AND LEARNED MORE ABOUT MY OWN VALUES.”
