MEMBER BENEFITS FOR INDIVIDUALS

Being an Individual Member of Americans for the Arts means getting members-only access to the following valuable benefits and services.

For more than 55 years, Americans for the Arts has been bringing people and organizations together through the arts. Today we serve more than 7,000 individuals representing over 1,500 organizations across the United States.

Our members are nonprofits and for-profits, government agencies and collectives, artists, consultants, students and educators. Our members work with visual and performing arts, adults and children, the business community, policymakers, and everyone in between.

When you join Americans for the Arts, you gain access not only to our research and information, but also to 6,000 professionals just like you who hold the key to a problem you're facing now. Americans for the Arts offers four Individual Membership Levels. All levels include valuable tools for professional development, member-only savings, discounts, and access to 7,000 arts professionals working to advance the arts in America.
