REQUEST FOR PROPOSAL

CREATIVE FORCES: NEA MILITARY HEALING ARTS NETWORK
DANCE/MOVEMENT THERAPIST

A. PURPOSE AND BACKGROUND

The primary service covered by this request for proposal is the implementation of a Dance/Movement Therapy (DMT) program that will investigate how creative arts therapies and various healing arts models developed and tested at the National Intrepid Center of Excellence (NCoE) at Walter Reed National Military Medical Center (WRNMMC) can be adapted and delivered to service members, veterans and families at the designated expansion sites.

Creative Forces™: NEA Military Healing Arts Network is an initiative of the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA) in partnership with the U.S. Departments of Defense and Veterans Affairs and the state and local arts agencies. This initiative serves the special needs of military patients and veterans who have been diagnosed with traumatic brain injury and psychological health conditions, as well as their families and caregivers. Administrative support for the initiative is provided by Americans for the Arts.

Since 2011, this National Endowment for the Arts partnership with the Department of Defense has supported creative arts therapies for service members with traumatic brain injury and associated psychological health issues. Beginning in the fall of 2016, the Creative Forces program expanded to nine additional clinical sites, including a VA Medical Center, and a telehealth program. In addition to increasing access to Creative Arts Therapies, the expansion effort includes growing access to therapeutic arts activities and community-based arts programs for military members, veterans, and their families in local communities at each of the 11 clinical sites. Through these local networks, Creative Forces encourages increased opportunities for military and veteran family populations, including those who have yet to access clinical care, to participate in therapeutic arts and community-based arts engagement interventions and programs to achieve lifelong health and well-being. More information about Creative Forces can be found on the NEA website.

Furthermore, the Creative Forces Network aims to promote research collaborations among the National Endowment for the Arts and the U.S. Departments of Defense and Veterans Affairs, to advance knowledge, leverage subject-matter expertise and promote utilization of best practices to benefit targeted patient populations. Clinical and research representatives supported by the National Endowment for the Arts are bound to the terms, processes and oversight of the Department of Defense, the Department of Veterans Affairs and/or required Federal-wide assurances. Each partner that participates in the Creative Forces
Network does so in a manner consistent with its organizational or agency mission and only to the extent permitted by its role in the Network.

The program has three components: Creative Forces places creative arts therapies at the core of patient-centered care in military medical facilities, and in a telehealth program for patients in rural and remote areas; provides increased community-based arts opportunities for military and veteran family populations around clinical site locations; and invests in capacity-building efforts, including the development of manuals, training, and research on the impacts and benefits of the treatment methods.

Creative Arts Therapists working in the Creative Forces project will provide clinical care, support community network development and engagement activities and coordinate research across these venues with national project leaders and each other to advance this mission.
