Denver Center for the Performing Arts	(aka DCPA)	1847365-32-19
Denver, CO 80204-5319

To support the world premiere of Last Night and the Night Before, a new play by Donnetta Lavinia Grays. The play tells the story of Rachel and Nadima, a same-sex Brooklyn couple whose orderly lifestyle is disrupted with the arrival of Rachel's sister Monique and her ten-year-old daughter Sam. As events unfold, it becomes clear that Monique and Sam are running across the country from a difficult situation. The play deals with important themes about families, how they are forced apart, how they can be rebuilt from broken pieces, and how the harsh realities of the world can deny a child of her innocence. The play was workshopped in the theater's Colorado New Play Summit, and will be directed by Valerie Curtis-Newton.
