University of Kansas Center for Research, Inc. Lawrence, KS 66045-7552		1849876-44-19
---	--	---------------

To support the exhibition knowledges at the Spencer Museum of Art. The exhibition will challenge canonical approaches to learning and will demonstrate that encounters with works of art can be as enlightening as the learning that occurs in laboratories and lecture halls. Artists Assaf Evron, Danielle Roney, Fatimah Tuggar, and Andrew Yang will be invited for site visits and multi-week residencies at the Spencer Museum of Art. They will be commissioned to create works of art that will be in dialogue with the university's research priorities such as the exploration of data visualization, immigration, social histories, and the natural sciences. Public programming will include artist talks, gallery tours, and a conference to engage researchers in the fields addressed by the artists.
