BETHESDA, MD – Walter Reed National Military Medical Center will host the 2nd National Summit: Arts, Health and Well-being across the Military Continuum as part of a co-lead national initiative for arts and health in the military on Wednesday, Apr. 10 in the medical center’s Memorial Auditorium.

Walter Reed Bethesda and partner organization Americans for the Arts, a nonprofit organization for advancing the arts and arts education, are developing a nationwide “Blueprint for Action,” which aims to increase the availability and use of arts among the continuum of military service, including American service men and women, veterans and their families throughout their lifespan.

The media availability of the event will be from 8:30 – 10:30 a.m. If you are interested in covering the event or have questions concerning coverage of the event, please RSVP no later than Monday, Apr. 8 at 3 p.m. to wrnmmc.pao@health.mil.

Media who have confirmed attendance should arrive no later than 7:45 a.m. at the South Gate, located directly across from the Medical Center Metro station, where you will be met and escorted by a member of the Office of Media Relations.

Please note: Questions regarding the “Blueprint for Action” can also be submitted in advance of the event to the email address above. An electronic media kit on “Blueprint for Action” will be available on Monday, Apr. 8 at www.wrnmmc.capmed.mil.
